Any question on which there is a tie vote shall be deemed to be lost, except where otherwise provided by any Act. If a Member present at a Meeting at the time of a vote requests immediately before or after taking of the vote that the vote be recorded, each Member present, except a Member who is disqualified from voting by any Act, shall announce his or her vote openly and the Clerk shall record each vote.

Notices of Motion shall be filed in writing with the Clerk and shall be added to the next Agenda for a regular Meeting of Council under as a Notice of Motion. Notwithstanding the written inclusion of a Notice of Motion on an Agenda, any Member may verbally provide a Notice of Motion during a Meeting and provide a written copy following the Meeting to the Clerk.

19. POINTS OF ORDER

When a Member desires to address Council upon a matter which concerns the rights of privileges of the Council collectively or of themselves as a Member thereof, the Member shall be permitted to raise such matter of privilege. A matter of privilege shall take precedence over other matters. While the Chair is ruling on a point of privilege, no one shall be considered to be in possession of the floor.

A Member who desires to call attention to what the Member believes to be a violation of the rules of procedure shall ask leave of the Chair to raise a point of order. When the leave is granted, the Member shall state the point of order with a concise explanation and shall attend the decision of the Chair upon the point of order. (The Speaker in possession of the floor when the point of order or privilege was raised shall have the right to the floor when the debate resumes.)

A Member called to order by the Chair shall immediately vacate the floor until the point of order is dealt with and shall not speak again without the permission of the Chair unless to appeal the ruling of the Chair.

When a Member desires to call attention to what the Member believes to be a violation of the rules of procedure, the Member shall, once recognized by the Chair, rise on a point of order. On raising the point of order, a Member shall state the point of order with a concise explanation and the Chair shall rule upon the point of order.

Unless a member immediately appeals the ruling of the Chair, the ruling of the Chair on the point of order shall be final. If the ruling is appealed, the appeal procedure set out in section 15 shall be followed.

20. VOTING – GENERAL

When a Motion that the vote now be taken (question) is presented, it shall be put to a vote without debate and if carried by a two-thirds majority of the Members present, the Motion and any amendments thereto shall be submitted to a vote immediately, without further debate.

After the Chair commences to take a vote on a question, no Member shall speak to such question or present any other Motion until a vote has been taken on the question. Voting shall be by way of a “show of hands” in favour or against, except when a recorded vote is requested by any Member.

Every person who is present at a Meeting when a vote by way of “show of hands” is taken on a question, shall vote thereon unless prohibited by statute, or if any Member present other than the Chair refuses or fails to vote, the Member shall be deemed as voting against the question.

When a recorded vote is requested, the Clerk shall call the names of Members present in alphabetical order except for the Chair whose name shall be called last and the Clerk shall record each Member’s vote and each Member’s vote shall be recorded in the minutes.

Any question on which there is an equality of votes shall be deemed to be lost except where otherwise expressly provided by statute.

If a Member disagrees with the announcement by the Chair regarding the results of any vote, the Member may object immediately to the Chair’s declaration and require the vote to be retaken by a recorded vote by the Clerk. A Member’s opposition to any question shall not be recorded in the minutes unless a recorded vote was taken.

When the question under consideration contains distinct propositions, upon the request of any Member, the vote upon each proposition shall be taken separately.

With respect to Committees, any Member, including the Chair, may propose or second a Motion and all Members including the Chair shall vote all Motions except when disqualified by reasons of interest or otherwise; a tie vote shall be considered lost.

21. VOTING – RECONSIDERATION

Once a Motion has been made and carried or lost, it shall be in order for any Member who voted with the prevailing side to move for reconsideration, and if such Motion is seconded, it shall be open to debate and be disposed of by the Meeting.

When a Motion of reconsideration is made at the same Meeting at which the question to be reconsidered was previously dealt with, the majority of Members present may pass such Motion of reconsideration.

When a Motion of reconsideration is made by a Member who voted with the prevailing side at a Meeting subsequent to that at which the question to be reconsidered was previously dealt with, the question shall not then be reconsidered unless a majority of the Members present pass a Motion of reconsideration to do so. If a Member wishes to propose a Motion for reconsideration at a subsequent Meeting to which the question to be reconsidered was previously dealt with, it must be preceded by a Notice of Motion of reconsideration given pursuant to section 17 hereof.

No more than two Motions for reconsideration of any question shall be permitted in the same calendar year. When Council has decided either for or against a certain question, a Committee shall not reconsider the same question during the same calendar year until a Motion for reconsideration has been adopted by Council.

If a Motion to reconsider is decided in the affirmative, such reconsideration shall become the next order of business, unless the Motion of reconsideration calls for a future definite date for the reconsideration, and debate on the question to be reconsidered shall proceed as though it has never previously been voted on.

Debate on a Motion for consideration must be confined to reasons for or against reconsideration.

After a Motion has been voted upon, and at the same meeting, any Member who voted with the prevailing side may, in writing, move for reconsideration. If such Motion to reconsider receives a seconder, it shall be open to debate, voted upon and shall require the votes of a majority of Members present to pass.

22. VOTING – AMENDMENTS

Only one amendment at a time can be presented to the main Motion and only one amendment can be presented to an amendment. When an amendment has been decided on, another amendment to an amendment may be introduced and when an amendment to a main Motion has been decided on, another may be introduced. In the case of an amendment to an amendment, an amendment to the main Motion cannot be withdrawn until the amendment to the amendment has been withdrawn or defeated.

An amendment to a main Motion or to an amendment must be similar to the question which it is proposed to amend but with sufficient variance to constitute a different question.

The amendment to the amendment, if any, shall be voted on first; then if no other amendment to the amendment is presented, the amendment to the main Motion shall be voted on next; then if no other amendment to the main Motion is introduced the main Motion shall be voted on next; or if any amendment to an amendment or any amendment to a main Motion has carried, the main Motion, so as amended shall be put to a vote.

Nothing in this section shall prevent other proposed amendments which have not yet been read to the Meeting but which have been presented to the Chair from being read informally to the Meeting if requested by any Member so as to inform the Members of the various amendments presented to the Chair respecting the Motion concerned.

When the question under consideration contains distinct proposition the vote upon each proposition shall, at the request of any Member be taken separately.

23. INTERPRETING THE PROCEDURE BY-LAW

In the event of conflict between this Procedure Bylaw and legislation, the provisions of the legislation prevail;

A specific statement or rule in this Procedure Bylaw has greater authority than a general one; and

If there is a conflict between two or more rules in this Procedure Bylaw, or if there is no specific rule on a matter, the chair shall rule. In making a ruling, the chair may consult the clerk, rely on previous rulings and practices, or refer to Robert's Rules of Order, Edition 11.

If there are more qualified applicants than positions available, Council shall select from the qualified applicants the ones to fill the position or positions concerned. The selection process to be followed by Council shall be as follows:

A recorded vote of the Council shall be taken with respect to the qualified applicants for each position available. If upon the first recorded vote no applicant received the votes of the majority of the Members present, the name of the applicant receiving the least number of votes shall be dropped and the Members shall proceed to vote anew and so continue until either an applicant receives the votes of the majority of Members present at which time such applicant shall be declared appointed; or, it becomes apparent by reason of an equality of votes that no applicant can be appointed by the voting process.

In the case where no applicant receives the majority required for appointment by recorded vote, and where two or more applicants are tied with the least number of votes, a special recorded vote shall be taken to decide which of the tied applicants with the least number of votes shall be dropped from the list of names to be voted on in the next recorded vote.

Where by reason of equality of votes it becomes apparent that no applicant can be appointed by the voting process, then the vacancy shall be filled by the applicant selected by lot by the Clerk.

These procedures shall also apply in any appointment made during the term of Council.

An Ad Hoc Committee Chair may be removed by a vote of a majority of the Ad Hoc Committee but no such Motion shall be in order unless preceded by a Notice of Motion.

If the Chair of an Ad Hoc Committee is not present within fifteen minutes from the time of the opening of the Committee meeting, the Members present shall, by Resolution, elect another Member of the Ad Hoc Committee to preside and the Member shall discharge the duties of the Chair for that Meeting, or until the arrival of the Ad Hoc Committee Chairperson.

27. RULES IN COMMITTEE

Rules of Committees containing less than a majority of Council members shall follow procedures set out by Council for such Committees.

Any public appointee of any Committee that misses two (2) consecutive Meetings, without notifications to the Chair with the reason of absence (just cause), may be considered to have resigned. Council may appoint another Member in their place.

A Committee which refuses or neglects to give due consideration to any matter before it, may, by Council resolution, be discharged from such responsibility to another Committee.

Each Committee, in the exercise of its several functions, when same is not described by Statute or by by-law, is subject to the control and direction of Council. Each Committee shall report in writing to Council on all matters connected with their duties or referred to them by Council.

By-Law 2018-24 and 2020-12 is hereby repealed.

This by-law shall come into force and take effect immediately upon the final passing thereof.
